For the language lesson in the second grade, Miss Young gave this list of words to be used in original sentences: violets, may-flowers, whistles, willow, window, teacher, study. The sentences given were written by Howe Cochran, age eight years:

Violets are very prett. Are violets pretty? May-flowers grow in the woods.
Do may-flowers grow in the wood-?
We make vehistles out of willows.

Do we make whistles out of willows?

A willow has green leaves. Have willows green leaves? The schoolhouse windows are large Are the schoolhouse windows large? Our teacher is good.

Is our teacher good? I like to study my lessons. Do you like to study your lessons?
